

Prof. Christeena Saju Varkey is currently serving as Principal, completed her Graduation from Government college of nursing Fort, Bangalore ,Post Graduate degree in nursing with the specialization of Medical Surgical (oncology ) Nursing from M S Ramaiah Institute of nursing education and research , Bangalore. She has got 32 years of experience in academic , research, administration and nursing practice . She worked in various capacities as Clinical Instructor, Matron, Nursing Tutor , Professor , Vice Principal and Principal . She has presented research papers in various state and national conferences. She has also published articles in journals. She is a member of examination board of various universities. She has organized national, regional seminars and conferences. She has guided more than 250 undergraduate and post graduate research projects.